

RIMRA Chute Release Borrower Agreement

Rhode Island Model Rocket Association (RIMRA) Equipment Loan Agreement – Chute Release Device

RIMRA may make a club-owned chute release available to flyers to support safer recovery of high-altitude flights. By borrowing this equipment, the borrower agrees to the terms below.

Borrower Information

Printed Name: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

Equipment Issued

Jolly Logic Chute Release

Borrower Agreement

By signing below, I acknowledge and agree that:

1. Proper Use

I am responsible for properly installing, configuring, and operating the chute release according to manufacturer guidelines.

2. Use at My Own Risk

RIMRA makes no guarantee regarding successful deployment, rocket recovery, or performance of the device during flight.

3. Replacement Responsibility

If the chute release is lost, damaged, destroyed, or returned non-functional as a result of my flight, I agree to reimburse RIMRA for the replacement cost.

Replacement Cost: $140.00

Accepted payment methods: Venmo, PayPal, or check payable to RIMRA

4. Equipment Return

I agree to return the device to a RIMRA officer immediately after recovery and before leaving the field.

5. Courtesy Use

I understand this equipment is provided as a courtesy and future access depends on responsible use by all flyers.

Signature

I have read and understand this agreement and accept responsibility for the borrowed equipment.

Borrower Signature: _____

Date: _____

RIMRA Use Only

Issued By: _____

Time Out: _____

Time Returned: _____

Returned in Working Condition

☐ Yes ☐ No

Notes:

RIMRA – Rhode Island Model Rocket Association

www.rimra.org